The Board of Cooperative Educational Services of the Sole Supervisory District of Otsego, Delaware, Schoharie and Greene Counties does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, genetic disposition or age in the educational programs or activities which it operates, including, but not limited to, access to facilities in accordance with the Boy Scouts of America Equal Access Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. 7905, which requires equal access for the Boy Scouts of America and other designated youth groups to meet at public schools.

I. INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW OF DISTANCE LEARNING

A. Goal - The principal goal of the ONC BOCES Distance Learning project is to expand educational, vocational, and in-service training opportunities in area communities.

B. Description - The distance learning videoconference network is a two-way, fully interactive, full-motion video and audio system connecting specifically designed classrooms in participating districts. The network uses H323 telecommunications equipment to enable teachers and students in a distance learning classroom to see, hear, and talk to students in other schools' distance learning classrooms. The fully interactive environment allows the teacher and all students to be in constant, visual and verbal contact with each other.

C. Participants - Twenty-five sites are currently participating in the project:

Andes C. S.
Charlotte Valley C. S.
Downsville C. S.
Edmeston C. S.
Gilboa-Conesville C. S.
Hancock C. S.
Jefferson C. S.
Livingston Manor C. S.

Sag Harbor Union Free School
Schenevus C. S.
South Kortright C. S.
Stamford C. S.
Unadilla Valley C. S.
Windham-Ashland-Jewett C. S.
Worcester C. S.

D. The Distance Learning Classroom - The classroom in which the teacher is located is the host site. The classrooms to which the host site transmits are called the "receive" or "remote" sites. The home district is the school the students regularly attend classes (it could be a host or receive site, depending on the class).

Each distance learning classroom is equipped with fully interactive audio/video equipment. The equipment consists of:

- A camera focused on the students and/or teacher.
- A document camera to display visual material and serve as an "electronic blackboard."
- Microphone
- A DVD/VCR player to play pre-recorded media. New rooms are equipped with a Blu-Ray player for local use. Please note that Blu-ray cannot be transmitted through distance learning due to encryption.

- Two monitors are placed in the front of the classroom. One monitor displays the people and one displays content.

- The teacher controls the image that is shown (computer, document camera, video, students or teacher) through the Crestron touch panel.

- A phone/fax/copier/scanner to transmit hard copy between sites (quizzes, homework, instructions, etc.) and to contact students individually through a phone call.

- A computer with access to the internet.

A diagram of the distance learning classroom, showing equipment and layout, is provided in Appendix D of this manual.

II. STUDENT POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

A. Course Registration

1. School Counselors at the respective school districts will schedule students for courses on the distance learning network.

2. School Counselors will submit the Student Enrollment Form (Appendix H) to the host site at least two weeks prior to the start of class.

3. Instructors may provide prerequisites to participating districts to help in the scheduling process.

4. School Counselors will generate registration forms or provide guidance to receive sites on how to register for each college course.

B. Student Orientation - Students scheduled for distance learning courses will:

1. Be provided with an opportunity to visit the distance learning classroom before the course begins, if requested.

2. A copy of the student policies and guidelines will be made available to distance learning students.

3. Sign, along with a parent or guardian, A Student Agreement form before starting a distance learning class.(APPENDICES A1 and A2)

C. Student Evaluation and Grading

1. Distance learning students will be evaluated in accordance with the approved course description. The host site teacher will inform students of the evaluation methods and processes at the beginning of each course.

2. All grades will be the responsibility of the host site teacher. The teacher will keep the grades in numerical form. The teacher will ensure that grade reports will be transmitted to the remote site districts by mail or by fax by the Monday following the last day of each of the first three quarters, and by the end of the day of the last day of the New York State Regents Examinations in June of each school year (dates listed in APPENDICES B1 through C).

3. All receive sites will submit grade reporting schedules to the host site teacher by the first day of class.

D. Student Record Keeping

1. Student records for distance learning will be kept by the host teacher. These are to include grades, attendance, and any other information deemed necessary. The receive site aid is responsible for internal district attendance reporting.

2. The teacher will send all cumulative records to the School Counselor at each receive site district at the conclusion of the course.

3. Any reference letter-to-number grade correlation relating to college courses taken by high school students will be determined by the current policy at each particular school.

E Student Attendance

1. The host district's attendance policy will be followed in any distance learning course.

2. For college courses offering college credit, that college's attendance policy will be followed.

3. If a student is not able to attend class, recording is available if approved by the instructor.

F. Student Conduct Policy - The success of the distance learning program requires the cooperation and support of the students. Overall, student conduct will be the responsibility of the host teacher. Instructors will directly contact the receive site administrator to resolve any persistent or serious problems. The following expectations must be understood and agreed upon by students, parents or guardians, and staff. Students are expected to:

1. Follow all school rules, including those developed for the distance learning program.

2. Understand the policies of the Distance Learning Student Agreement and the Student Manual and follow those rules.

3. Sign Student Agreements and forward to the Distance Learning Coordinator.

In cases where rules have been violated, a student is subject to his/her own school's student conduct code.

G. Class Cancellations and Interruptions

1. Classes will be canceled only for factors at the host sites, such as equipment failure or snow days, or for scheduled events appearing on the school calendar (for example, early dismissals for conferences).

2. Cancellations at receive sites will be treated as days missed and the students are responsible for making up the work. Students will be provided with a copy of the missed class for viewing.

H Student Make-Up Work- Student make-up work will be completed based on the policy of the instructor and the host district.

I. Extra Help Sessions for Students - Extra help for students will be worked out between the instructor and the student requesting help on an individual basis. The distance learning network may be used for extra help sessions, if available.

J. Student Add/Drop of Course

1. The adding and dropping of courses will be governed by the home district policies and procedures. The host site teacher will be consulted prior to any change.

2. For college courses offering college credit, the add/drop policies of the college will be used.

K. Central Visit For Students - If possible, instructors are encouraged to organize field trips as another means of bringing the class physically together in one location. Any receive site chaperone charges will be billed back to the receive site.

L. Student Use of Network - Students in extracurricular activities are encouraged to schedule time outside their class schedules or after school to meet with students from other schools. The network could be used for joint student council meetings or other club meetings.

M. Course Schedule - The distance learning course schedule for the current school year can be accessed online in The Junction Database by typing http://dlcourses.e2ccb.org in your internet browser. User name is: distance and password is: distance. Then select: Login.

N. School Calendar - The BOCES school calendars for the current school year appear in APPENDICES B1 through C and includes the dates for the end of marking periods and the due dates for grades. The only exceptions are for colleges offering courses over the network Special arrangements will be made in the classes involving any of the above exceptions.

O. Internet Use - Internet Use Policies of the individual districts will be enforced.

This Page Left Blank

III. FACULTY AND DISTRICT STAFF POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

A. Staffing Issues

1. The intent of the distance learning program is to improve/expand learning opportunities. Therefore, there will be no reduction of staff in the department of the district where a course is being sent or received, directly related to the distance learning program.

2. The teaching of classes on the distance learning network shall be voluntary, with commitment for a full school year determined on or before June 1 of the previous school year.

B. Teacher Evaluation Procedures

1. Teacher evaluation in the distance learning classes is the responsibility of the host site, as written in the local faculty contract.

2. The Distance Learning Coordinator will distribute student, room aid and teacher surveys during the last month of the course solely to evaluate the performance of distance learning program and its coordination.

C. Staff Development

1. Any staff member teaching an approved course on the distance learning network is required, at minimum, to be familiar with classroom equipment.

2. Teacher training will be provided before the school year and as needed. During the formal training sessions in the summer, the teacher will learn how to operate the distance learning system and its component parts (cameras, document camera, fax machine, etc.) and prepare and deliver a short lesson using the equipment to transmit to at least one other site.

3. Teachers will be compensated for participation in the training sessions by the home district, at a rate to be determined by the BOCES and the participating District Superintendents.

4. Additional staff, such as substitute teachers, teacher aides, room monitors, and media specialists, may be trained at the discretion of participating school districts.

D. Textbooks and Materials Selection - Textbooks and materials for a distance learning course will be selected by the host instructor.

The host district will be financially responsible for textbooks. Consumable items will be split between all sites. Textbooks for college level courses will be the financial responsibility of the receive site. The receive site will be financially responsible for lost or damaged textbooks.

E. School Bell Schedules

1. Students must meet minimum state class time requirements. (32 minutes).

2. Districts should make every attempt to make it easier for the instructor to teach a distance learning class (for example, the district should avoid scheduling the instructor to teach a class the period before and/or after the distance learning class, depending on the bell schedules of the districts involved).

3. For college courses offering college credit, students must meet the college's minimum required number of minutes.

F. Classroom Responsibilities

1. Class size/enrollment: Enrollment and class size will be determined by the following list of criteria, in the order the criteria are listed:

   a. individual contracts between the local faculty association and the local school district.

   b. recommended class size of 24 students or less

   c. discretion of the instructor based on the course subject (for example, a foreign language versus a math course)

   Course enrollment will be reviewed and approved by the participating districts, the Distance Learning Coordinator, and the instructor. Final enrollment decisions will be made before the end of the preceding school year.

2. Student supervision responsibilities: Overall conduct will be the responsibility of the host site teacher. Instructors will directly contact the receive site distance learning administrator to resolve any persistent or serious problems.

3. Student attendance:

   a. Student attendance records for distance learning courses will be kept by the host teacher.

   b. An adult supervisor at each receive site will take daily attendance in the distance learning classrooms and report all absences to the appropriate authority in accordance with that particular school's attendance procedures.

   c. The host district's attendance policy will be followed in any distance learning course.

d. For college courses offering college credit, that college's attendance policy will be followed.

4. Student grades: See Student Evaluation and Grading

5. Copyright Issues: Instructors should bring any questions about the usage of copyrighted materials in distance learning class lessons to the attention of the local school district or the distance learning office.

G. Adult Supervision at Remote Sites

1. During any distance learning class, it is highly recommended that an adult supervisor be present at each receive site for the entire class period. This supervision is necessary because of liability concerns and for an easier and more efficient distribution of materials.

2. At a minimum, it is required that an adult supervisor is present:

   a. At the beginning of class periods to: ensure security of equipment and take attendance at that particular site and report all absences to the appropriate authority in accordance with that particular school's attendance procedures

   b. At the end of class periods to ensure security of equipment

   c. During the entire period on days an exam is given

3. It is recommended that adult supervisors be trained on how to use classroom equipment.

H. Faculty Visits to Remote Sites

1. Host teachers are encouraged to spend at least one class period per semester at each remote site.

2. Districts will facilitate any arrangements at the home district to allow the host teacher to travel to the receive districts.

I. Teacher Absence/Substitute Teaching

1. A teacher absent from his/her distance learning class will follow the established procedures related to substitute coverage. In addition, the teacher is responsible for informing his/her school's distance learning administrator that he/she is a host teacher of a distance learning class. The host site building secretary will inform the receive sites of the substitute.

2. Each distance learning teacher will be responsible for developing at least three (3) emergency lesson plans to be used by substitutes, including such things as videos, work sheets, etc.

3. Host schools will attempt to supply substitute teachers trained in distance learning procedures when a host teacher is absent.

4. For courses requiring independent study, the independent study will be coordinated by the instructor and supervised at each participating school district.

J. Class Cancellations and Interruptions

1. Districts must let all other participating distance learning schools and the distance learning coordinator know when classes are canceled. Each district will then notify each particular distance learning instructor within its own school. Districts must notify instructors in advance when school functions/schedule changes force receive site students to miss class.

2. Instructors who are not employees of the districts and have been hired by the BOCES to teach a distance learning course will be notified directly by the host district of any class cancellations.

3. Scheduled interruptions, such as fire drills, that take students out of distance learning classes, are held to a minimum. If possible, districts should avoid interruptions during distance learning classes. Whenever possible, receive sites will be notified in advance of such events.

4. If possible, the public address systems should be turned off in the distance learning classroom. Alternative procedures can be developed in each district to inform students of any pertinent announcements.

K. Courier System - The distance learning program cannot work without reliable and efficient distribution of information between the sites. Information will be distributed through the following procedure:

1. To distribute information to remote sites, instructors at the host site will either email, fax or mail information (handouts, quizzes, etc.) to remote sites in advance of its use in class.

2. The individual designated at each district to handle distance learning courier responsibilities (see list in APPENDIX E) will then make sure the information is properly distributed to the students in the class. A suggestion would be to require students to stop by the main office each day to pick up course handouts. Information could also be left in a designated area of the distance learning classroom, where students could pick up the information just prior to the beginning of class.

3. If the class requires any information to be returned to the host site, the distance learning courier system contact would then ensure that the quiz, test, homework assignment, etc. was faxed or mailed back to the course teacher.

4. For exams, each receive site must have an individual present in the distance learning classroom to distribute the test to the students at class time. This person must also remain in the classroom to monitor the exam at the receive site. At the end of class, this individual will collect the tests and return them to the local distance learning courier system contact.

5. For objects too large to mail, the BOCES van mail system will be used. Teachers must plan ahead and know the days van service will be at each of the participating districts in the distance learning class (see list of van service in APPENDIX E)

6. Teachers may modify the system at their discretion (for example, teachers may want to fax a quiz or homework directly to the students via the distance learning fax or they may want to grade assignments or quizzes using the classroom Elmo).

L. Distance Learning Classroom and Equipment Use - The distance learning classroom and equipment should be used for educational purposes or other similar activities. (such as board presentations, community meetings, etc.). Improper uses of the equipment must be avoided, and include such activities as illegal copying of copyrighted videotapes for personal use.

M. Classroom/Network Use Outside Class Time - The distance learning network is scheduled through a bridge at the BOCES administrative offices. To schedule use of the network outside regular class time:

1. Check the overall distance learning schedule for potential available time slots at the host site or any potential receive site. Remember, although the time may appear available on the distance learning schedule, it may already have been scheduled. It may be a good idea to pick a backup time as well.

2. Pick a potentially available time.

3. Complete the Distance Learning Classroom/Network Use Request Form (APPENDIX F).

4. Submit a copy of the form to the involved sites' distance learning administrator (host and/or receive) and either email, fax or mail a copy to the distance learning coordinator. Requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance.

5. The distance learning coordinator will fax or email a confirmation notice back to the district. Do not assume the network has been scheduled until this notice is sent back to the district.

6. Emergency requests (within 24 hours of use) are discouraged, but can be made. Directly contact the distance learning coordinator with a request. The distance learning coordinator will indicate whether the network is available or not. If the network is available, the individual making the request will need to contact the involved sites' local distance learning administrators to inform them of the schedule.

N. Visitors

1. For in-person visits:

a. each visit must receive the prior approval of the host instructor

b. host instructor should notify receive site students of visit

c. each building visitor must follow school visitation policies when entering the building

2. For on-line visits (visits over the network):

a. individuals must receive prior approval from the host instructor in order to view a distance learning class from any other site on the network

b. individuals must contact the distance learning coordinator by completing the visitation form (APPENDIX G) to let him/her know of the visit

c. host instructor should notify receive site students participating in the distance learning class of on-line visit

O. Other Contractual Issues - A number of other issues affecting distance learning not addressed in this manual will be the responsibility of the individual school district.

Appendix A1. Student Agreement

Otsego Northern Catskills BOCES
Distance Learning Network

The Distance Learning Program represents an opportunity for districts to offer courses that normally might not be offered because of low enrollment or scheduling problems. Further, the Distance Learning Program provides an opportunity for students to take advantage of the latest technology and instructional techniques.

Because of the uniqueness of this interactive technology, certain standards of performance and behavior must be maintained by students enrolling in these courses. The distance learning classroom is fully equipped with television cameras and other interactive equipment which allow for full audio and video interaction. This policy statement is designed to make both students and parents aware of the behavior standards and expectations of enrolled students.

As a student taking a Distance Learning course, I am aware that:

1. Appropriate behavior is expected of me at all times in accordance with the rules established by my school and my teacher. Inappropriate language and gestures will not be tolerated.
2. Because of the technology available, my class may be videotaped at any time.
3. Certain classroom procedures must be followed:
    a. I will sit within the camera view at all times, unless instructed by the teacher to do otherwise.
    b. I will handle the distance learning classroom equipment only if authorized to do so.
    c. I will follow appropriate network etiquette.
    d. I will follow all other rules as specified by the Distance Learning teacher.

In addition, I have read and understand the policies of the Distance Learning Student Manual.

The Distance Learning Program is a unique opportunity for learning. I understand that if I cannot follow the above rules, I will be subject to a range of penalties from a verbal warning to removal from the program.

I, _____, have read and understand the policy above and agree to the rules stated.

Electronic Communications

The Otsego Northern Catskills BOCES is pleased to work with districts within the Distance Learning Network on offering electronic communications to students in distance learning classes. To gain access to electronic communications, all students must obtain parental permission as verified by the signatures on the form below.

Access to electronic communications will enable students to explore thousands of libraries, databases, museums, and other repositories of information and to exchange personal communication with other members of the class and the teacher. It will also allow for a transfer of materials. While the purposes of Distance Learning Network is to use electronic communications for constructive educational goals, students may find ways to access or transfer inappropriate material. Parents and guardians of minors are responsible for setting and conveying the standards that their children should follow when using electronic media. Therefore, we support and respect each family's right to decide whether or not to apply for access.

Students are responsible for appropriate behavior on the school's and ONC BOCES' computer network just as they are in a classroom. General school rules for behavior and communication apply. It is expected that users will comply with district standards and the specific rules set forth below. The use of the network is a privilege and learning tool, not a right, and may be revoked if abused. The user is personally responsible for his/her actions in accessing and utilizing the school's computer resources.

Privacy - Network storage areas may be treated like a school locker. Network administrators may review communications to maintain system integrity and to insure that students are using the system responsibly.

Storage Capacity - Users are expected to remain within allocated disk space and delete e-mail or other material which take up excessive storage space.

Illegal copying - Students should never download or install any commercial software, shareware, or freeware onto network drives or disks, unless they have written permission from the Network Administrator, Nor should students copy other people's work or intrude into other people's files.

Materials or language - No profane, abusive or impolite language should be used to communicate nor should materials be accessed which are not in line with the rules of school behavior. A good rule to follow is never view, send, or access materials which you would not want your teacher and parents to see. Should students encounter such materials by accident, they should report it to the home site teacher immediately.

Behavior - When you are using the computer network and communicating with others, keep the following in mind: (1) You cannot see them; (2) You cannot tell how old they are or even what sex they are; (3) They can tell you anything, and you cannot always be sure what they are telling you is true; and (4) Absolute privacy cannot be guaranteed in a network environment. So you need to think carefully about what you say and how you say it. (5) Do not give out your home phone number or your address to anyone. If you feel there is a problem or if you feel uncomfortable with the information someone is giving you, tell your teacher immediately. On the other hand, you may not harass other users. You may not use the network to annoy, harass, or otherwise offend other people.

Termination - These are guidelines to follow to prevent the loss of network privileges at school:

(1) Do not use a computer to harm other people or their work.
(2) Do not view send, or display offensive messages or pictures.
(3) Do not share your password with another person.
(4) Do not waste limited resources such as disk space or printing capacity.
(5) Do not trespass in another persons' folders, work, or files.
(6) Do notify your home site teacher immediately, if by accident, you are contacted or receive materials which violate appropriate use.
(7) Be prepared to be held accountable for your actions and for the loss of privileges if the rules of Appropriate Use are violated.

The district has the right to restrict or terminate information network access at any time for any reason. The district further has the right to monitor network activity in any form that it sees fit to maintain the integrity of the information activity.

Parent permission form and User Agreement

As a parent or guardian of a student at school, I have read the above information about the appropriate use of computers at the school and I understand this agreement will be kept on file at the school Guidance Office(Questions should be directed to the principal for clarification.)

¤My child may use e-mail and the Internet while at school according to the rules outlined.

¤I would prefer that my child not use e-mail and the Internet while at school.

OTSEGO NORTHERN CATSKILLS BOCES ONLINE COURSES

"Using Technology to Facilitate Student Learning"

Partnering with school districts; dedicated to providing the best possible education for learners of all ages and abilities!

Policies and Procedures

2018-2019

Policy and Procedures

This policy is for online courses provided by ONC BOCES offered through outsourced vendors.

ADMISSION POLICY

Enrollment:

School districts that have signed on through ONC BOCES can participate in the Online Learning program. Online courses will be available throughout the school year and summer. Participation in an online course provided by ONC BOCES will include a partnership comprised of student, local school district, teacher of record, (online teacher from the vendor if needed), and the ONC BOCES Online Distance Learning Specialist.

Online courses are available in the following areas:

- Credit Recovery
- Unit Recovery
- Electives
- Core Subjects
- Advanced Placement

and can meet student educational needs due to:

- Insufficient graduation credits
- Limited course selection
- Scheduling conflicts
- Credit recovery or unit recovery
- Acceleration
- Home bound students

School districts can register their students for an online course by completing an Online Course Registration Form and contacting Lisa Lorette, Distance Learning Specialist, at 607-588-6291 ext. 2145 or by email at llorette@oncboces.org. The Distance Learning Specialist will work with the local school district's school counselor/administrator and student for enrollment purposes.

The cost to enroll a student in an online course with an ONC BOCES support vendor varies according to vendors' fees through the NYSDL consortium pricing. Online course offerings purchased through BOCES are state aidable.

Enrollment Policy:

School districts will sign up for the online course program by a firm commitment to join the 411 Distance Learning Online Co-Ser or by completing an additional service request.

Each student enrolling in an online course must complete the Student Registration Form, which will provide information pertaining to student name, address, contact information, availability of computer access at home, parental or guardian information, school information including school contact personnel, teacher of record and subject area, student special needs, and enrolled course information. Information provided on the student enrollment form will provide the ONC BOCES Distance Learning Specialist and pertinent school personnel with the basics for providing dedicated student support.

The student, student's parents or guardian, school counselor, administration, and the Distance Learning Specialist must sign the Student Registration Form.

If a student withdraws from a course, the local school district policy shall be in effect. A school district may drop/withdraw a student from an online course at any time during the student's enrollment. School districts may be eligible for a partial refund (depending on vendor) if student is dropped/withdrawn from a course within 10 days of enrollment. The school district will be responsible for full payment of tuition if the student is dropped/withdrawn from the course after 10 days past student's course enrollment date. Dropped student tuition cost is based on vendor's "student dropped" policies.

Orientation and Course Start Up:

Upon enrollment, the online student will meet with the ONC BOCES Distance Learning Specialist to navigate through an online orientation. This orientation is required before the student can start the online course and is essential for the success of the student in the online course. Once the student completes the orientation, the student can begin working in the online course.

ONC BOCES will assign each student a user name and password. The student in the online course will also be supplied with a pacing chart showing how frequently assignments should be completed in the online course, along with dates for course section completions. Provided pacing will help each student in an online course stay on track with the course end date.

ACADEMIC POLICY

Recognition of Credit:

Local school districts provide the guidelines for receiving credit from courses taken online. ONC BOCES online courses utilize a New York State teacher certified in that particular area of instruction with aligned curriculum to the New York State standards.

Teacher of Record

Local school districts will be awarding credits towards graduation for successful completion of an online course. NYS requires that each student be assigned a teacher of record that is either hired by the local school district or hired by a BOCES. The teacher of record will be New York State Certified in the online course(s) subject area. The teacher of record will be a local means of support for the online student and will be responsible for reviewing course curriculum and verifying its alignment to New York State standards. The teacher of record will also coordinate with the online course teacher, if existent, and discuss any modifications that may or may not be needed to the course to fit the student's needs and/or the district needs. The local school district will determine the policy as regards to teacher time and workload.

Grading and Credit:

Online Course Teachers will honor points and weight course assignments, quizzes, and tests at his/her discretion, which will be provided to each student via the course syllabus upon enrollment in the course.

Grading will be provided to the local district as a letter grade, pass or fail, or as a percentage (0 -100%). These grades can be provided at the district's request for quarterly report cards.

Once the student has met the entire online course requirements, a final grade will be provided to the local school district. The local school district will be responsible for determining the amount of credit to be awarded to the student and the final grade.

Academic Integrity:

Existing local school policies and online vendor policies for Code of Conduct will apply to each ONC BOCES online student. ONC BOCES will require each student enrolled in an online course to submit a signed Code of Conduct with registration form. The local school district's policies concerning computer usage will also apply in the online environment as well as any additional course policies provided by the online teacher.

Student Automatic Drop Policy:

A student may be removed from a course if there is inactivity in the course for more than 3 weeks. Students are considered "inactive" if no noticeable work is done in the course. Login does not count as activity. Additionally, a student behaving in severe misconduct shall be dropped from course(s) immediately.

Course Extensions:

Course extensions if needed may be granted upon the discretion of the online teacher, the local school district, and the request of the ONC BOCES Distance Learning Specialist.

Students with Special Needs:

ONC BOCES in conjunction with the local school district will try to address any special needs of the online student on a one-to-one basis. Local school districts will be responsible for complying with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act which provides standards for accessibility to web-based content for those with physical impairments.

TECHNOLOGY

Technology Access:

The local school district should insure computer access at the school, community library, or at the student's home. Access should not be a dial-up connection. Any technology requirements are the responsibility of the student and local school district. Technology requirements for online courses will include the following:

Browsers:	• Firefox, Google Chrome • Popup Blocking Disabled • JavaScript Enabled • Adobe Acrobat Reader
Media:	• Speakers/Headphones' • Microphone required for certain courses

Course Access Time

Each online course student may be allotted online course access time during school hours depending on local school district policy. Each online course student will also be required to devote time to online coursework outside of the regular school day/week. Each online student may be required to take online quizzes and tests under the supervision of a school proctor, based on local school district policy.

ONC BOCES PROVIDES

Registration:

ONC BOCES will assign each student with a vendor that will be providing the course content and/or an online teacher. The Distance Learning Specialist will ensure that a pacing calendar has been created for each student.

Orientation:

Each student will be given a face-to-face session with the ONC BOCES Distance Learning Specialist on how to navigate through the online course.

Mentoring for Students and District Staff:

The ONC BOCES Distance Learning Specialist will meet with each student regularly to:

- make sure online courses are progressing smoothly
- verify that each student is maintaining benchmarks
- help each student troubleshoot technical issues
- facilitate issues with online course(s) and/or online instructor(s)

The Online Learning Coordinator will meet with school officials to keep them comprised of online learning progress and to discuss any concerns they may have or changes they would like to make.
